

Education for the 21st Century

主讲人：Prof. Fernando Reimers（哈佛大学教育研究院）

时 间：2017年12月15日上午10:30-12:00

地 点：北师大英东楼822室

主持人：李奇 教授

讲 座 提 纲

1. Why rethinking education for the 21st century is necessary ?
2. What is the Global Education Innovation Initiative and what is our theory of action?
3. What do we do on research and what are our key findings ?
4. What is the theory of Informed Dialogue and what have we done in that domain?
5. Why do we think developing practical tools and protocols can help close the gap between research, policy and practice?
6. What have we done developing global citizenship curriculum?
7. What are we learning from the global community of school leaders and teachers we are supporting as they work in global citizenship education?

主讲人简介：

- Ed.D., Harvard University, (1988)
- Ford Foundation Professor of Practice in International Education
- Faculty Director, International Education Policy Program
- Director, Global Education Innovation Initiative
- Faculty Chair, Think Tank on Global Education

Fernando M. Reimers focuses his research and teaching on innovative global education policies and programs that help students develop competencies necessary for civic participation and work in the twenty first century. He works also in the area of global citizenship education and in how to align education policies with the achievement of the Sustainable Development Goals.